Highlighting — NLS Network Library of the Year

On May 17th Gene Hainer and I attended the NLS/Library of Congress luncheon that honored this year's winners of the Network Library of the Year and the Sub-regional Network Library of the Year. We were honored to receive the award on a rainy Thursday.

We met Senator Cory Gardner and Senator Michael Bennett in person to receive their congratulations! Representative DeGette was tied up in budget negotiations so Matthew Allen, her legislative aid, represented her at the luncheon.

Serving our patrons is why we come to work everyday and it is nice for the staff and volunteers to be recognized for doing this work.

Karen Kenninger,
Director NLS with Debbi and Gene accepting the award.

From the Director

From June 17-21 I attended the NLS National Biennial Conference in Nashville, TN. We heard about the changes that will be coming to the program over the next 5 years, listened to some local music and heard Ronnie Milsap tell his story about being a patron and a musician. He has won 6 Grammys, has 40 hits and is in the Country Music Hall of Fame. His book is titled Almost Like a Song - DB 032896. I will write more details of some upcoming changes in the September newsletter.

Tech Talk — BARD Security Updates

NLS initiated a change to BARD user accounts in an effort to enhance security and prevent misuse. Each day, the BARD system checks patron accounts to see when a book was last downloaded. Any accounts that haven't been used in over a year are placed in an inactive/suspended status.

If you are unable to log into BARD, chances are your account has been suspended. You will need to call a Reader Advisor at 800-685-2136 to have your account reactivated. Part of the process of re-enabling a BARD account requires the password to be reset.

The temporary password you receive needs to be used within 24 hours. Once you have logged into BARD and created a new password, you will need to download a book right away or the BARD system will automatically suspend your account again the next day.

Resource of Interest — Envision

Envision is a non-profit which helps the blind and low vision community with services and support in these categories:

Employment, Outreach, Rehabilitation, Education and Research

This year's meet and greet format at the Open House was very successful.

Magazine list is available on request.

Volunteers — Quietly and Behind the Scenes

At the end of every movie the credits roll. Streaming by at nearly lightning speed is that long list of names and jobs that we seldom pay attention to. But we know that movies aren't made by just the actors we see on the screen. There is a small army of people with various talents and skills that work together behind the scenes to make a movie happen.

This is true at CTBL, too. There are many volunteers who work with our staff behind the scenes to make audiobooks, Braille, and large print books available to our patrons. In fact, without their help, most books would never leave our building to later show up in your mailbox or be available for download on BARD.

There isn't room enough in this newsletter to list everyone who contributes to the success of our library, but we see them every week. They come in and use their talents and skills to make our books available to you. Some are here working in the stacks to pull or to shelve books, or audit our inventory. They may work at home on one of the off-site assignments and then bring in the finished work to complete a larger project. They may donate financially to our Friends organization to help fund the library. They may carry applications in their purse or car just so they can recruit new patrons wherever they go. Each one of them contribute to the whole production of our award-winning program and before the lights come up, their names should scroll across the screen to acknowledge their dedication to CTBL. And a thundering round of applause would be heard!

If you are interested in volunteering for CTBL, visit our website at www.myctbl.org and complete the Volunteer Application found on the volunteer page.

Recommended Local Series — The Asphalt Warrior

Written by Gary Reilly, The Asphalt Warrior series tells the story of Denver cabbie, Brendan "Murph" Murphy who has two main goals in life. First, to earn no more from driving his cab than it takes to keep his bohemian lifestyle afloat. Second, never, under any circumstance, get involved in the lives of his fares. He's not very good at the first and spectacularly bad at the second.

Denver is a featured "character" in this cleverly written series, along with a quick-witted cabbie, and a host of eccentric locals. Recommended for cozy mystery lovers, as well as readers who enjoy interesting characters and a bit of Denver history.

Recorded in CTBL's Denver studio, the first four books in the series include:

- DBC00656 — The Asphalt Warrior
- DBC03075 — Ticket To Hollywood
- DBC03174 — The Heart of Darkness Club
- DBC03268 — Home for the Holidays

From the Colorado Collection — Audio Books:

Colorado history is one of our patrons' favorite topics. Just check out these titles recorded at CTBL. They are our twelve most popular local recordings and they are all about Colorado and its history. Enjoy!

Timberline Tailings: Tales of Colorado's Ghost Towns and Mining Camps

Author: Muriel Sibell Wolle  Narrator: Nelson Embleton

Includes letters written by and interviews of the hardy men and women who met the challenges of the gold and silver mining camps of Colorado with stamina, ingenuity, and a keen love of life. 1993. Adult Non-Fiction. DBC03121

The Song of the Hammer and Drill: The Colorado San Juans, 1860-1914

Author: Duane A. Smith  Narrator: Nelson Grabenstetter

Traces the mining and urban history of the San Juans from 1860 to 1914 through the lives of people who opened, settled, and developed the beautiful, but rugged mineral-laden peaks of southwestern Colorado. 2001. Adult Non-Fiction. DBC03128

Man-Eater: The Life and Legend of an American Cannibal

Author: Harold Schechter  Narrator: Andrea Loughry

In the winter of 1873, a small band of prospectors lost their way in the frozen wilderness of the Colorado Rockies. Months later, only one of them emerged — Alfred Packer. Dubbed "the Man-Eater," Packer disappeared for nine years and became the West's most wanted man. This is the story of a legendary crime — a gripping tale of unspeakable suffering, the desperate struggle for survival, and the fight to uncover the truth. Violence. 2015. Adult Non-Fiction. DBC03197

Children of the Storm: The True Story of the Pleasant Hill School Bus Tragedy

Author: Ariana Harner  Narrator: Laverne Rios

On the morning of March 26, 1931, students excitedly boarded a bus for a routine ride to the Pleasant Hill School. By the time they arrived at the school, the weather had turned snowy and the children were sent home. Confused by weather conditions, the driver lost his sense of direction and lodged the bus in a ditch. When rescuers found the vehicle, a day and a half later, the blizzard had taken its deadly toll. 2016. Adult Non-Fiction. DBC03140

Cherry Creek Gothic

Author: Sandra Dallas  Narrator: Jim Wheelock

Illustrated and annotated volume of Denver's famous Victorian buildings. Appeals not only to architecture students, but also to persons interested in the flamboyant personality of the time. 1971. Adult Non-Fiction. DBC03143

The Opposite of Woe: My Life in Beer and Politics

Author: John Hickenlooper  Narrator: John Hickenlooper

The maverick (and very funny) governor of Colorado tells his story, from early loss to college on the ten-year plan, to remarkable business and political success. Some strong language. 2016. Adult Non-Fiction. DBC03186

Colorado's Colorful Characters

Author: Gladys R. Bueler  Narrator: Nelson Grabenstetter

The author introduces the reader to 83 people who had an impact on Colorado's history. Included is a comprehensive chronology which tells of many more "Colorado characters." Adult Non-Fiction. DBC03149

Doc Holliday, Bat Masterson, and Wyatt Earp: Their Colorado Careers

Author: E. Richard Churchill  Narrator: Valerie O'Neill

Traces the Colorado careers of the three best-known gunmen in the West. 1974. Adult Non-Fiction. DBC03013

Out Where the West Begins: Profiles, Visions, and Strategies of Early Western Business Leaders

Author: Philip Anschutz  Narrator: Louise Lederhos

Between 1800 and 1920, an extraordinary cast of bold innovators and entrepreneurs helped lay the groundwork for what we now call the American West. This volume profiles some fifty of these individuals, tracing the arcs of their lives, exploring their backgrounds and motivations, identifying their contributions, and analyzing the strategies they developed to succeed. Adult Non-Fiction. DBC03076

Legacy Gifts

Legacy gifts to the Friends of CTBL are a vital way to ensure ongoing support for all the services the library provides to patrons. The Friends have established Eyes to the Future that honors and recognizes the generosity and vision of patrons, families and friends who have chosen to leave a legacy through their estates or other deferred gifts.

We invite you to become a member of Eyes to the Future. Enrollment in this honorary group is simply a matter of advising us about your plans to make a legacy gift, such as a bequest in a will or living trust, or designating The Friends of CTBL as beneficiary of an individual retirement plan, 401k or life insurance policy. The Friends of CTBL is a public 501 c 3 charity and the tax ID is 23-7243950.

Contributions to The Friends of the Colorado Talking Book Library and The Colorado Talking Book Library

An additional way to contribute to either the Friends or to CTBL is through a charitable bequest as part of a will or through life insurance. You do not have to rewrite your current document but can add a written amendment called a codicil. Such a bequest only becomes irrevocable at your death. Giving to the library helps support the programs and service we provide to our patrons and helps to secure the future.

AmazonSmile

The AmazonSmile Foundation donates 0.5% of the purchase price of eligible products to charitable organizations. If you make purchases through Amazon, try AmazonSmile and designate The Friends of CTBL as a recipient of charitable donations. Several patrons have already done this. Thanks!
